

Who is there to help?

By Tim Lane, Of One Accord Board Member

When an elderly couple, living on a fixed income, has little money left to buy food after paying for medicines, who is there to help? - WE ARE!

When a worker is laid off from a job and needs help feeding his/her family, who is there to help? - WE ARE!

When a family loses everything because of a house fire and needs food, clothing and furniture, who is there to help? - WE ARE!

When a family or individual can't afford to go to the doctor or purchase medicines, who is there to help? - WE ARE!

When an elderly person still living at home needs a hot meal or home repairs, who is there to help? - WE ARE!

When a child or a teenager doesn't have enough to eat in the summer when school lunches are no longer available, who is there to help? - WE ARE!

When cold weather approaches and a family can't afford winter coats for their children, who is there to help? - WE ARE!

When our local National Guard troops are deployed overseas and need personal care items and other supplies from home, who is there to help? - WE ARE!

When a family can't afford to celebrate Christmas with their children, who is there to help? - WE ARE!

When elderly shut-ins and others wish for a holiday meal, who is there to help? - WE ARE!

When children in foreign lands need a nutritious meal and want to learn more about Jesus, who is there to help? - WE ARE!

When local young people yearn to know more about Christ and seek positive role models for their lives, who is there to help? - WE ARE!
